www.HayesBand.com

We are proud to announce our new website, www.hayesband.com! The website will be THE OFFICIAL means of communication between the Hayes Band staff and the community. Any information we have regarding performances, schedules, rules/guidelines, and the calendar will be available as soon as we ha on the website. This is a change and may take some adjustment, but it is in the best interests of the group. One of the best features is that you are able to subscribe to the band calendar on your iPhone! This will automatically add all of the dates from the band calendar to your personal phone. Whenever we change the calendar, the changes will update on your phone automatically!

Help Support the Hayes Marching Band!

The Cadence Club will be working in a concession stand at the Crew Stadium again this season. Our efforts at the Crew Stadium last year funded a large portion of our uniform fund and will continue to fund our efforts in the marching band circuit as we grow! If you would like to volunteer ANY amount of time to our efforts, please contact Gary Hughes (740-816-4838) or Sandy Noren-Hanula (740-972-9545). If you would like to help support the band, but do not feel comfortable participating in the Crew events, please contact Ameer Sword for ways to get involved. We can always use the
